Committee Reports

1- Book Fair

Chairs- Ashely Campbell and Brittney Ahrens

- Parents thrilled to be back in the building and had a great response to parent volunteers
- Back to using Scholastic after a couple years off and will continue to use them next year
- $7200 in sales and $570 online with a week left to go online
 - Nice to have both the in person and online option
- Each teacher was able to have at least one book donated from their wishlist

2- Staff Appreciation Week

Chairs- Sam Kaeding and Amanda Gavin

- SAW will run November 14th-19th
- Big thanks to Kim Cronk and Steph Wilhelm for decorating the school
- Through the generosity of many donors we are able to give the staff a lunch everyday of the week
- New this year was a donation link in the Regal Weekly for anyone to give a monetary donation towards the week
 - $1257 was donated via the Regal Weekly donations
 - This money will be used towards snacks and drinks for the cart delivery on Wednesday as well as teacher gifts
 - Remaining money will go towards a lunch and possibly a happy hour for staff in May during the national Teacher Appreciation week

3- Teacher Treats

Chair- Abby Parker

- A Sign Up Genius has been sent out to H&S members to give towards a monthly snack/treat for teachers
 - Typically drop off will take place by the first Thursday of the month (December 2nd is the first donation deadline for drop offs)
 - Abby Parker's home will be the drop off location

4- Family Fun Night

Chair- Laura and Molly

- January 30th
- More to come as we hope to be able to gather together in person for this event
- The chili supper has tentatively been moved to this date
- Gala baskets and class projects may be displayed as well
- A great kickoff to Catholic Schools Week

5- Catholic Schools Week

Chair- Betsy Hoffman

- January 31st- February 4th
- No book donations this year
- Working on corresponding the daily national themes into the week
 - Dress up days

Adjourn
