Meeting Began at 9:05 AM

1. New Variant - The Omicron BA.2 (new subvariant) does not appear to be as disruptive as previous variants. Medical experts will continue to be consulted.

2. Numbers - Center-wide numbers have been consistently low (<6) since before spring break.

3. Events coming up at Regina -

As it stands, Regina intends to hold these upcoming events in traditional formats.

- April 15 - Good Friday Prayer Services: Many senior and 5th grade parents and others attend and Regina welcomes this.
- April 3 to April 9 - Senior Trip to Washington DC: Need to discuss logistics and health plans should someone become sick or develop COVID.
- April 20 - Memorial Mass: in HS gym which traditionally brings about approx 50 outside people.
- April 23 - Prom: Knights of Columbus and Party After Prom
- April 27 - Jr/Sr High Pops Concert
- May 3 - Sixth grade field trip to Camp Courageous
- May 6 & 7 - JH Spring Play: Ozma of Oz. Three shows which typically have about 50-75 people per show in Elem Gym
- May 18 - Scholarship Awards Assembly: in HS gym. 7-12th grades plus senior parents.
- May 18 - Scholarship Luncheon: held in Elem gym. Lunch at long tables. Approx 150 people attend.

Events yet to be reviewed by Return to Learn.

- TBD May 6? - Grandparents Day: This event can bring several hundred extra people. Will have a large population of aged individuals. Question as to whether some grandparents may not attend because of such large crowds. Does Regina need to consider breaking the event up into two days or into smaller groups? No decision has been made at this point. Discussing activities schedule. Elementary administration having further discussion on how this can best work.

4. Covid Info on Regina Website - Discussion of moving the Covid tab to be a sub menu under the ABOUT tab as many other districts have done. Will review at the next meeting.
